- alarm signal about a problem condition alarm problem b or condition alarm device are after our fitted with siren
- device typically the access point there is a stand alone electrtechnology lock the lock is unlocked by operator with a switch to automated this operator . intervention is replaced by reader when code is entered it could be card reader ,readers do not usually make an access list to monitor door position a magnetic door switch can be used concept the door switch is not unlike those an refrigerator b or car door , general only entry is controlked and exit uncontrollably and exit bis also controlled a second reader is used on the opposite side of the door in case where exit is not craftier free existing a device calked request to exit.
- used request to exit can be push or monitor detector when the button in.push
